Reporting to the Police

Always ring 999 in an EMERGENCY and 101 in a non-emergency.

Non-emergency crimes can also be reported online via Twitter, between 8am - 10pm by tagging or direct messaging the Met Contact Centre, (<https://twitter.com/MetCC>).

In addition, information for non-urgent crimes can be passed on to Crimestoppers where the report is then sent to the relevant authority who has the power to investigate the crimes. Anonymous reporting of issues can be reported online <https://crimestoppers-uk.org/give-information/forms/give-information-anonymously> OR by calling 0800 555 111.

PLEASE NOTE: Crimestoppers is not an emergency service and if you see a crime taking place you should ring 999 to report it immediately.

Retail / Evening Economy

If you have any issues with Town Link Radio / Littoralis contact Love Wimbledon. 020 8619 2012

Merton Street Pastors are a group of ordinary Christian volunteers from local churches in Merton, motivated by the love of Jesus, who go out to patrol the streets in Wimbledon, Morden and Mitcham, late at night on Friday nights looking to care for people, to listen to people and to help people.

Rough Sleepers

StreetLink is a platform that connects people sleeping rough to support provided by local authorities and charities. This includes anyone who is sleeping outside, preparing to bed down, or sleeping somewhere not designed for habitation, such as a car. Help connect people sleeping rough to local support services by reporting online. <https://www.streetlink.org.uk/>

Potential Terrorist Activity

If you've seen or heard something that could suggest a terrorist threat, report it the Met Police.
