

Booking Terms for Trading at Any of Our Markets

Love Wimbledon Ltd. (hereinafter called 'The Company') is hereby deemed the organiser of the Piazza Markets.

We want you to do well at our market and we want our market to do well with the visiting public. Love Wimbledon is the principle brand for Wimbledon town centre and so we set our own high standards that we aspire and adhere to. When you are at our market, you are representing that brand and so we ask that you ensure that the appearance of your stall, your dress code and your communication with the public are in keeping with our high standards. We also ask that once you book, that you keep your booking and that you pay for your stall promptly by the due date.

If you have booked in advance we expect you to honour your booking just as we do. When the market is fully booked, we operate a waiting list for each individual market. If you are holding a confirmed place which you then do not keep, it is often too late for the waiting trader to accept at short notice, so please bear this in mind when booking or accepting a place.
